New Governors

Following our elections, we are pleased to welcome our five new Governors representing the constituencies of Elmbridge, Kingston and Richmond. Three of the public Governors were reappointed, two in Kingston and one moving from Richmond to Kingston. Two staff governors were reappointed, unopposed for Medical and Dental and Allied Health Professional. The Hospital's Council of Governors is made up of 33 members, including 17 public governors, 4 staff governors and 12 appointed governors representing our stakeholders including local councils, Clinical Commissioning Groups and Kingston University. Calling all singers, dancers and actors

Molesey Musical Players are seeking new talent to perform in 'Stand By Your Beds', a musical about the NHS created by Paul Ticker (a former theatre nurse). They are keen on getting people involved in the production and will be organising smaller events in the run up to the performance dates at the Walton Playhouse in May 2016. A percentage of funds that are raised will be donated to the Hospital's Dementia Appeal. If you are interested in hearing more, please email Kathleen.flanagan@kingstonhospital.nhs.uk

Kingston Hospital's Maternity services rated as one of the best in London

The results of the Care Quality Commission (CQC) 2015 national survey of more than 20,000 mothers about maternity services across England, show that Kingston Hospital is one of the best performing in London. www.kingstonhospital.nhs.uk/news-events/news/kingston-hospital-s-maternity-services-rated-as-one-of-the-best-in-london.aspx

Big Sing

Come and join us for the Mayor's Big Sing 2016 and raise money for the Hospital's Dementia Appeal. The two hour singing workshop is led by a team of experienced vocal leaders and a great opportunity to hear some beautiful singing from the South London Military Wives choir. The event is taking place on Sunday 21st February, 6.30pm at the Rose Theatre. www.rosetheatrekingston.org/whats-on/the-mayors-big-sing
